

Find your inspiration on the Small Ships of Princess®

Some of the grandest experiences are to be found on our smallest ships. Be one of fewer than 700 guests — mostly adults — to sail with Ocean Princess®, Pacific Princess® or Royal Princess® during our Summer 2010-Spring 2011 cruise seasons. You'll savor a more relaxed, leisurely ambience than on our larger vessels, with lovely surroundings and a highly attentive staff. All the activities and amenities you would expect of a Princess ship are offered, yet on a smaller scale — with everything you could want easily accessible from anywhere on the ship. And many small-ship itineraries call in less-frequented ports that are inaccessible to larger ships.

If you're seeking the allure of cruising the way it used to be — intimate, unhurried, refined — set sail with the Small Ships of Princess.

Spend leisurely days at sea attending engaging lectures or art auctions, relaxing in the library or playing shuffleboard on deck.
